

~~SECRET~~

Approved For Release 2001/05/11 : CIA-RDP78-06084A000300020035-2

23 May 1962

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training
THROUGH : Chief, Operations School
SUBJECT : Weekly Activities Report No. 20
17 - 23 May 1962

A. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

Nothing to report.

B. OTHER ITEMS

1. Information Reporting, Reports and Requirements (IRRR):

25X1A9a One student completed eleven days of tutorial training on 21 May.
25X1A Mr. [REDACTED] of NE [REDACTED] is continuing his tutorial instruction in IRRR and is showing steady improvement.

2. Information Reports Familiarization (IRF):

25X1A Two persons from SR [REDACTED] are currently receiving tutorial instruction in IRF and will probably finish on 1 June.

3. Counterintelligence Familiarization (CI/FAM):

Course No. 32 is in its second and final week. It is progressing satisfactorily.

4. Clandestine Services Review (CSR):

25X1A9a Course No. 37 is in its second and final week. Despite certain schedule changes to accommodate various speakers and the cancellation of Mr. [REDACTED] talk on DODS, the course is progressing satisfactorily.

Approved For Release 2001/05/11 : CIA-RDP78-06084A000300020035-2

~~SECRET~~

SECRET

5. Clandestine Services Liaison Operations (CSLO):

Course No. 20, with a final enrollment of four, began on 21 May.

6. Covert Action Operations (CAO):

Course No. 55 ended on 18 May. Mr. [REDACTED] is now preparing a report on it. I monitored as many sessions as possible, including some of those conducted by Mr. [REDACTED]. The course seemed to go well and was competently handled by Mr. [REDACTED].

7. Scientific and Technical Operations (S&T):

Mr. [REDACTED] report has not yet been received (see [REDACTED]). Mr. [REDACTED] has recently attended Congressional hearings on Project [REDACTED] and has had a briefing on and tour of the ELINT read-out lab. He has also continued his investigation of a possibility of doing research on Soviet cultural and scientific exchange.

C. ADMINISTRATION

Mrs. [REDACTED] began maternity leave 18 May.

25X1A9a

AC/HT/OS

SECRET